Amoxx is committed to protecting your privacy online. Amoxx is also committed to providing Customer with the very best experience at Amoxx.com. In order to enhance Customer's experience, Amoxx gathers certain personal information about Customer that helps customize and improve the Web Site content. Please read Amoxx Privacy Policy to understand how Customer's personal information will be treated as the Customer make full use of Amoxx.com. As this Privacy Policy may change from time to time, kindly check back periodically.

Collected Information

Amoxx may collect information in several ways from different parts of the Web site. Amoxx may collect some personal information when customer initially access Amoxx.com. Customer's name, email address, zip code, and country may be asked. The more information Customer share with Amoxx (and the more accurate it is), the better it is to enhance and customize Customer experience on Amoxx Web Site.

In addition to the information Amoxx collects upon Customer's initial access to Amoxx.com, Amoxx may ask the Customer for personal information at other times, including (but not limited to) when the Customer sign up Amoxx's service(s) through the Buy section, when Customer enters promotions or contests and when the Customer responds to a survey. For example, when the Customer make a purchase through Amoxx online store, Amoxx collects several items of personal information, that may include Customer's billing and shipping address, telephone number and any other information necessary to complete the transaction.

Wherever Amoxx collects personal information, an effort will be made to include a link to this Privacy Policy on that page.

Usage of Collected Information

Amoxx's primary goal in collecting personal information is to provide Customer, the user, with a customized experience on Amoxx.com. The information Amoxx collect (including information contained in Customer's cookie) may be used to provide such capabilities as personalization services, interactive communications, merchandising, and Customer's sign up pages at the Buy section. Amoxx may also use the information to estimate the size of the audience and measure certain traffic patterns, to track the progress and number of entries in Amoxx's promotions and contests, to track visits to and business conducted at Amoxx's Buy section, to notify Amoxx's visitors about updates to Amoxx.com, to contact Customer for marketing purposes, to contact Customer on behalf of third parties and deliver targeted advertisements that may be of interest to the customers. Amoxx may occasionally contact Customer with information regarding special events at Amoxx.com. However, Customer may optionally choose not to receive such marketing materials by using the 'unsubscribe' feature upon receiving such communication (usually at the bottom of the page).

Usage of Cookies

Amoxx may use "Cookies" to track and record Customer's preferences and activities during the time spent surfing on Amoxx.com. Cookies are small bits of data that are sent to Customer's browser and stored on Customer's computer hard drive. Customer's cookie may be set at various times during the time of interaction with Amoxx.com. It is updated from time to time as Customer access the many different portions of Amoxx.com. Each time Customer access Amoxx.com, Amoxx server may deliver certain customized information to the Customer based on the data stored in Customer's cookie.

Amoxx also collect IP addresses for system administration and may report aggregate information to Amoxx sponsors and advertisers. For security reasons, IP addresses are also collected to minimize Credit Card Fraud, SPAM, Flood of Data etc. In event of Fraud, SPAM, Flood of Data etc, government authority will be notified.

Visitor Tracking

Amoxx uses Live Chat technology, supplied by a third party, namely PROVIDE SUPPORT. This technology allows Amoxx to track visitors in real-time allowing Amoxx's sales representatives to better understand which products respective visitors are interested in by observing the pages the visitors visit.

Sensitive Material

Although Amoxx strives to maintain security in administration, visitors and Customers are advised not to provide sensitive information like Credit Card numbers, Personal Banking numbers, Email Address passwords etc to the sales representative via Live Chat. If there is a need to send such information to Amoxx, visitors and customers may email to support@amoxx.com.

SSL128bit Encryption

All Live Chat used on Web Site Amoxx.com are established on secured pages provided by PROVIDE SUPPORT -- using SSL128bit encryption.

Information Collected by Other Parties

Some advertisers or Web Sites that have links on Amoxx site may collect personally identifiable information about the Customer when Customer access or utilize those links. Amoxx does not control the collection or use of such information, and the practices of those advertisers and Web Sites are not covered by this Privacy Policy.

Sharing of Information and its Purposes

Amoxx does not sell, rent, or trade Customer's personal information with others. However, when one or more of Amoxx's business partners co-sponsor a service, promotion and/or contest, Amoxx may share some or all of the information collected in connection with such service, promotion or contest with the co-sponsor(s). If Amoxx intends to share such information, the Customer will be notified prior to the collection of that information. If the Customer do not want any information to be shared, the Customer will be able to choose not to allow the transfer by not using or signing up for that particular service, promotion or contest.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

From time to time, Amoxx may change this Privacy Policy. Changes will be published on these pages so that Customer can always be aware of the information Amoxx collects, how it is used, and under what circumstances Amoxx shares the information with others.
